Upon information and belief, the copyrights have effective dates that predate the Defendants' acts of copyright infringement.

15. In an effort to illegally profit from the creative content of the Plaintiff's Works, Defendants have created numerous Defendant Merchant Storefronts and designed them to appear to be selling authorized Plaintiff's Works.

16. The Defendant Merchant Storefronts share unique identifiers, such as design elements and similarities of the unauthorized products offered for sale, establishing a logical relationship between them and suggesting that Defendants' illegal operations arise out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences. Defendants attempt to avoid liability by going to great lengths to conceal both their identities and the full scope and interworking of their illegal operation. Plaintiff is forced to file this action to combat Defendants' piracy of the Plaintiff's Works. Plaintiff has suffered, and continues to suffer, irreparable harm due
